

WRECKED INTO Redemption
IndyCC '09

Dear Parent,

Let me first take the opportunity to thank you for allowing your child to participate in Campus Crusade for Christ. Your child has decided to invest his or her time in following God and learning more about Him, which reflects highly on you as a parent.

Campus Crusade for Christ is an interdenominational Christian organization that promotes biblical faith, evangelism and discipleship in more than 190 countries around the world. A small percent of the world population will earn a college degree, making those who do some of the most influential individuals on Earth. We are committed to equipping that powerful group of students with the personal knowledge of Jesus, power of the Holy Spirit and desire to see God's name lifted above their own.

This conference is one way we do that. IndyCC is a four-day retreat where your child will listen to notable Christian speakers – including James MacDonald, pastor of the Harvest Bible Chapel in Chicago – and meet other students from Ohio, Illinois, Michigan and Indiana. One afternoon, students will take food boxes to the Indianapolis community to help meet physical needs and start spiritual conversations that could lead to changed lives.

This year's conference, Wrecked into Redemption, will focus on the themes of brokenness, repentance and the Spirit-filled life. We want to challenge your child to realize he or she is not perfect (of which I'm sure you're aware) and must rely on someone bigger – God. The conference will take place from Dec. 28 to Jan. 1 at the Indianapolis Convention Center. The $200 fee covers hotel and conference costs. We know the conference might cut into some holiday traditions, and we appreciate the sacrifice you made for your child.

If you have any questions about Campus Crusade for Christ or this conference, please don't hesitate to ask.

In Christ,

Jenny Smith
